Vadim Boldirev

Vadim Boldirev is originally from Baku, Azerbaijan. He fell in love with the art of dance at the age of 14 and his passion for dance has not stopped. Vadim began quickly climbing the ranks. After 5 years of continuous training in ballet and International style, and numerous competitions he became a champion of several big events in the country and Caucasus region including the Cup of the Capitol, Cup of Azerbaijan Republic, and Tri-country Championships.

After becoming one of the leading teachers in the country and opening his own studio he was recruited by the Fred Astaire Dance Company and relocated to Michigan in 2009. Almost immediately he started to study the American style of ballroom dancing and competed with his new partner - Karla, who after moving down to Florida became his wife. Several years later they became undefeated Closed American Smooth and Rhythm Inter-region Champions for Fred Astaire Dance Studios, Open American Smooth finalists, and runners-up in Rising Star American Smooth at World Fred Astaire Championships. In 2014, Vadim and Karla became proud owners and managers of Aliqua Ballroom.

Vadim has many certifications and extensive knowledge in many styles of dance including American Smooth and Rhythm, International Standard and Latin, social club, and country dances. Besides teaching, Vadim enters dance competitions with his students, choreographs routines, organizes and hosts dance showcases, and participates in fundraisers and other special dance performances. He is always looking for new and creative ways to incorporate his love for dance.
